

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Miss Wilson Visiting in Greenwich—News of the Diplomats—Summer Plans

PRESIDENT WILSON'S eldest daughter, Mrs. Margaret Wilson, and her cousin, Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Quan, at Greenwich, Conn., and will remain with them over the Fourth of July holiday. Tomorrow evening they will be members of Thomas Chadbourne's party for "The Merry Whirl of 1920," a kermis extravaganza which is being given for the benefit of the Greenwich Hospital.

Manuel Gondra, President-elect of Panama, landed in New York today, and will come at once to Washington to see his wife and his baby son, born here a week or ten days ago. Senator Gondra is still minister of Paraguay to the United States, but will give up his portfolio and sail soon for Paraguay to be inaugurated on August 15.

GO TO NEW LONDON FOR VISIT.
Boaz Long, American minister to Cuba, and his sister, Mrs. Theresa Long, have gone to New London, Conn., and will visit there and at other places in New England. Mrs. Long has been staying with Mrs. Howard Sutherland, wife of the Senator from West Virginia.

The Hon. Ronald Lindsay, counselor of the British embassy, has gone abroad to spend his vacation.

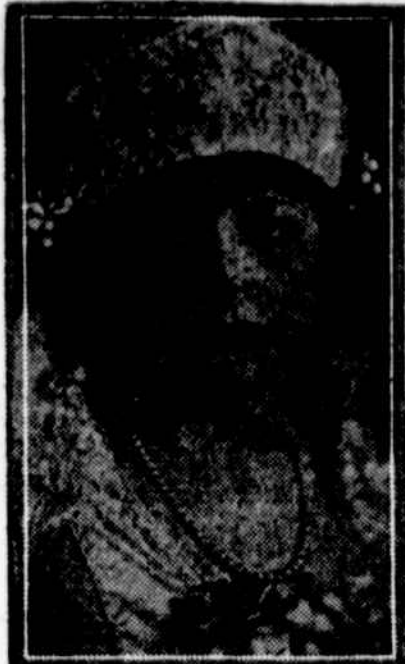

Mrs. Joseph Leiter will go to Hot Springs, Va., today to remain several weeks.

Senator and Mrs. Philander C. Knox have closed their residence in K Street and gone to their estate at Vay, Pa. During the summer they will spend some time at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Thomas H. Carter, widow of the former Senator from Montana, left yesterday for Helena, where she will be during the summer. Mr. and Mrs. John G. Carter, who were married June 17, have returned from their honeymoon in Canada, and will occupy the family residence in Sixteenth street for the summer.

Mrs. Henry Conger Pratt will leave in the next few days for Bar Harbor, where she will spend the summer. Her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ord Preston, with whom she will spend some time, are already in their summer home at Grindstone Neck, Me.

Mrs. A. Gordon Jones and Miss Nancy Gordon Jones left Washington today to make a brief visit to Mrs. Jones' sister in Wayne, Pa., after which they will go to Scarborough Beach, Me., for the summer.

Mrs. A. L. Parsons, who makes her home with her son J. O. Parsons in New Hampshire avenue, will leave town tomorrow to visit friends in Pennsylvania for two or three weeks. She will be accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Louise Cosby, of Charlottesville, Va., who has been her guest since the closing of her school in Virginia.

Bishop John William Hamilton, chancellor of American University, is entertaining his son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Hamilton, and their daughter, Miss Jean Elizabeth Hamilton. Mrs. Hamilton and her daughter have just returned from a trip to California.

DR. BAYNE VISITS MOTHER.
Dr. Breckenridge Bayne has joined his mother, Mrs. John W. Bayne, at the place she has taken for the summer near Leesburg, Va.

Mrs. Robert H. Traver and Miss Frances Traver, who have been in Japan for the last year, have returned to Washington for a brief stay, but will not open their Connecticut avenue home until next season. Mrs. Traver and her daughter will probably join the Southampton colony for the summer.

Hugo de Pena, secretary of the Legation of Uruguay, and Mme. de Pena will spend part of the month of August with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. John Mason Hundley, of Baltimore, at their cottage at Monterey, Pa.

Miss Beale Hickey will go to Manchester-by-the-Sea next week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac T. Mann and will make the trip to New England by motor with her hosts. Mr. and Mrs. Mann are now at their place at Bramwell, W. Va., but will make a brief stop in Washington before going North.

TO GO TO HOT SPRINGS.
Lieut. Comdr. and Mrs. Frank B. Freyer will leave Washington today for Hot Springs, Va., where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Elliott, who have a cottage there for the season. Wednesday evening Commander and Mrs. Freyer were entertained at dinner at the Chevy Chase Club by Mrs. Joseph H. Hampson.

Miss Katherine Robinson and Miss Carolyn Nash have joined the house party which Miss Frederick is giving at her country place near White Sulphur Springs for Miss Miriam Benoit, of St. Louis.

The marriage of Miss Bertha M. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Williams, to D. Stewart Patterson, took place yesterday morning. The ceremony was performed at 11 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. G. Ellis Williams, in the presence of a small company of relatives and intimate friends. A wedding breakfast followed after which Mr. and Mrs. Patterson left for a wedding trip to Lake George. They will be at home after August 1 at 3921 Kansas avenue northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norment will close their house Saturday and leave for New York. They will sail on the Olympic July 8 for England and return to Washington about the first of October.

Major and Mrs. Robert H. Young, of 1626 N. Newton street, will spend Wednesday evening when the marriage of Miss Inez V. Eaton, of Oakdale, Cal., and Eugene S. Mockerman of Grand Rapids, Mich., took place.

The ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Herbert T. Randolph and was followed by a reception at the home of the bride, 1203 East Capital street, for the bride party and a few intimate friends.

The bride comes of a well-known southern Maryland family. She is a granddaughter of the late Judge and Mrs. George C. Merrick and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kent Roberts. She is a graduate of Central High School.

Foundry Methodist church was the scene of an interesting wedding, Wednesday evening, when the marriage of Miss Inez V. Eaton, of Oakdale, Cal., and Eugene S. Mockerman of Grand Rapids, Mich., took place. The ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Herbert T. Randolph and was followed by a reception at the home of the bride, 1203 East Capital street, for the bride party and a few intimate friends.

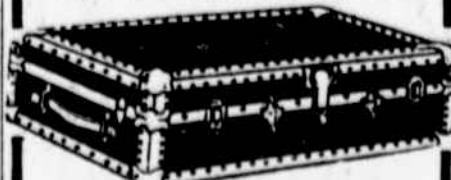

The church was decorated in palms and pink gladiolus. Preceding the ceremony, Ridgway Taylor accompanied by Miss Edna White, the organist, sang "Because." The bride, who was given in marriage by A. B. Gilmore, a close friend, wore a wedding dress of white satin and silver lace, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and sweet peas. Her veil was veiled with a wreath of orange blossoms worn by her mother thirty-seven years ago. The bridegroom's bouton hole bouquet was a spray of orange blossoms worn by her father at the same time.

The bride's sister, Miss Eva Eaton, of Oakdale, Cal., was maid of honor and wore a becoming gown of pink organdy and carried pink Lady Russell roses. The two little flower girls, Miss Marion Gilmore and Miss Helen Stone, both of Washington, wore white frocks daintily frilled and carried baskets of Dorothy Perkins roses. After a two weeks honeymoon Mr. Mockerman and his bride will make their home in California.
